Security and Defence Research Team

Yoko Nitta

Yoko Nitta is security adviser to governmental institutes and a member of the Society for Promotion of Japanese Diplomacy, The Japan Forum on International Relations, JIIA, JETRO, etc. She has an experience from giving lectures on strategy of cyber warfare within an intensive course she taught at the National Defense Academy. Her papers and articles on analyzing Japanese cyber security strategy, cyber power of Russia, China, North Korea as well as on global security landscape are published overseas (Germany, France, United States and UK) widely read and quoted as well as posted frequently on Japanese newspapers. She frequently advises her analysis on information warfare to many countries including NATO, US as well as allies. Yoko Nitta is an invited speaker at various international conferences and she plays a role as a moderator for many global international security conferences. Yoko Nitta analyses global security landscape of cyber related issues, information warfare information operation (information warfare, hybrid warfare, cyber espionage, media manipulation, etc.) regularly.

https://esd-en.cnam.fr/yoko-nitta-1147609.kjsp?RH=1576511990513